

IAGA provides the global gaming industry with a collaborative forum for discussing the key issues affecting gaming today. Supported by a membership of the industry's leading attorneys, senior executives, financial advisors, regulators and academics, we host numerous events each year where attendees participate in rich discussion about current industry topics and trends and network with their global colleagues.

None of this would be possible without the generous support of our sponsors.

Supported by a membership that includes the industry's leading attorneys, senior executives, financial advisors, regulators, consultants and academics, our purpose is to connect expert advisors through shared experiences and education to influence the advancement of global gaming.

ABOUT IAGA

Since it was founded in 1980, the International Association of Gaming Advisors (IAGA) has provided a relevant, collaborative forum for discussing issues affecting global gaming. Supported by a membership of the industry's leading attorneys, executives, financial advisors, regulators, consultants and academics, our purpose is to connect expert advisors through shared experiences and education to influence the advancement of global gaming. To accomplish this, we host numerous conferences, events and webinars each year where attendees participate in rich discussion about key topics and trends and benefit from valuable networking with their colleagues.

None of this would be possible without the support of our sponsors. As a non-profit organization, we rely on their financial support to address the issues affecting global gaming and expand the education provided to industry regulators. As the industry adapts to stay relevant in a rapidly evolving world facing a wide range of challenges and opportunities, IAGA's unparalleled ability to bring together industry decision makers and regulators to discuss critical issues and build key relationships is more important than ever. In particular, our annual International Gaming Summit brings together a diverse range of gaming industry thought leaders from all over the globe to collaborate on critical issues and deepen their relationships with other industry experts, and our 43rd Summit that will be held June 2 - 4 in Sarasota, Florida focus on topics of interest including sports betting and sport integrity, the state of prediction markets and their impact on regulated betting, and an insightful look into the growing threats presented by illegal and gray market gambling.

To help support our efforts, we respectfully invite you to consider the benefits of supporting IAGA as an annual or event sponsor. During 2026, as we focus on expanding our support of the industry and its regulators through numerous education and networking opportunities, your company will have many opportunities to receive recognition for your support of our goals and to participate in our outreach activities. We sincerely hope you will consider committing to a 2026 sponsorship and join our efforts in supporting gaming's continued growth. We look forward to welcoming you to Sarasota for the 2026 International Gaming Summit and greatly appreciate your ongoing support.

Sincerely,

Harper Ko
