

Casino/Gaming Attorney

The law firm of Cooper Levenson is seeking an attorney for a busy Casino and Gaming practice. Enjoy a fast pace and the chance to get involved in an exciting and ever evolving world of the gaming industry. The ideal candidate will have 2-8 years' experience in Gaming. The candidate should have a background in corporate, gaming contracts and gaming compliance.

Our practice is worldwide and offers the opportunity to work with some of the most respected organizations in the gaming industry. New opportunities are regularly happening with Sports, Internet Gaming and eSports. The appropriate individual should also feel comfortable in business settings as part of a team that will work on business development activities. Great growth opportunity. Competitive salary and benefits package.

Location does NOT matter. You may work anywhere in the continental United States.

Cooper Levenson, PA is an equal Opportunity Employer. We will ensure equal employment opportunity to all employees and applicants regardless of race, color, sex (gender, pregnancy, sexual harassment, sexual orientation, gender identity, or transgender status), national origin, age (40 and over), disability (mental or physical) equal pay/compensation, genetic information, or retaliation.

The law firm of Cooper Levenson, P.A., established in 1957, providing client support across numerous disciplines. We maintain offices in Atlantic City and Cherry Hill, New Jersey. We also have offices in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Las Vegas, Nevada, New York City, New York, and Bear, Delaware. We are proud to serve a client base that spans the region and the globe - from individuals to corporations and companies of all sizes and types, even sovereign governments.

As a large, full-service firm, we have teams of attorneys that are able to focus their attention on numerous areas of practice while employing the full support, resources and experience of other departments of the firm.

Cooper Levenson provides our business and individual clients with an uncompromising commitment to exceptional legal services and a "client first" focus that has contributed to our success since 1957. The cornerstones of our firm's foundation remain the same - Commitment to client service - Corporate responsibility - Dedication to community.

Please send your resume to Kenneth J. Calemme, Jr. – kcalemme@cooperlevenson.com